Sourceful-Resourceful

Once again we wish to give special recognition to our administrators for the work that makes our school system possible. Employing the teachers and custodians and making up the budget for the school year are only two of the many important tasks they perform. Their efforts toward improvement seem untiring. Though they do not receive the thanks they deserve, we want them to know that we realize that they are primarily responsible for making our "school day" possible.

Class History

In the fall of 1950 the nucleus of the class of 1954 met for the first time in the northeast corner of the assembly. There were thirty-two members in all. We elected Sylvia Little, President; Jerry Parnell, Vice-President; David King, Secretary; Lorraine Biggerstaff, Reporter; Agnes Gfeller and Jim Warner, Historians, We chose Leland Fee for our class sponsor. During this year Sylvia Little moved away and Jerry Parnell became President. We then elected Nancy Wickerham Vice-President. In November we sponsored a skating party at Silvermoon. We had another party in April. We had a potluck supper and then went to Angola to the show.

We began our Sophomore year with twenty-eight. We held a class meeting electing Jack Brooks, President; Susie Zonker, Vice-President; Phyllis Brenneman, Treasurer; David King, Secretary; David Arney, Reporter; Kathleen Dille and Lorraine Biggerstaff, Historians; and choosing Paul Everett as our sponsor. In September we ordered our class rings and received them in November. That year we had two parties. The first was held in October at the Town Hall; we played games and then went to Angola to the show. In March we had a wiener roast and then went to the show at Angola.

Our Junior year opened with twenty-five on the roll. Our class officers were Jack Brooks, President; David Arney, Vice-President; Lorraine Biggerstaff, Secretary; Phyllis Brenneman, Treasurer; Kathleen Dille, Reporter; Dannie Hamman and Susie Zonker, Historians; and Dollie Arney, our sponsor. We had a paper drive in September and sold magazine subscriptions in November. We sold Christmas cards in November and Dollie Arney had a Christmas Party at her home for us in December. In January we sold magazine subscriptions for a different company. We had gigantic bake sales during the year. We presented our play, GHOST WANTED, on April 23. The Junior-Senior Class trip was on May 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9. We went to Washington D. C.

With twenty-five in our class we elected officers as follows: Lorraine Biggerstaff, President; Kathleen Dille, Vice-President; Jack Brooks, Secretary; Phyllis Brenneman, Treasurer; Nancy Wickerham, Reporter; Rosemary Miller and David Arney, Historians; and Fred Frederick, Sponsor.

In October we all went to Robert's in Fort Wayne for our Senior Pictures. By November we were ready for our play "REST ASSURED." We had a Christmas party at Carole Leas's home. The events we are still looking forward to are: Junior-Senior Valentine Party, Trip, Class Night, Baccalaureate and Commencement.

This just about rounds up everything the Class of '54 has done in the four years at Ashley High.

This is Your Life

1964

DAVID ARNEY is starting his internship in Greenland where there is a certain young nurse.
ANN AYERS after waiting for two years has settled down and is raising her own family.
LORRANINE BIGGERSTAFF while working in the baby ward at the Lutheran Hospital found a doctor and is raising her own family.
PHYLLIS BRENNEMAN after trying for ten years finally won first place in the 500 Mile Indianapolis Race. She is the first woman to win here.
JACK BROOKS after ten years has quite a string of teeth to add to his collection in his dentist office.
KATHLEEN DILLEY sent a letter from Africa the other day. It seems Kathleen and her husband are doing a good job of converting all the natives.
AGNES GFELLERS has opened a day nursery in Hamilton and has a fine family of her own.
DANNIE HAMMAN is working on splitting the split atom.
DON HAMMAN is a personal pilot for Arthur Godfrey.
DAVID KING after being named American Poet Laureate is the head of the Library of Congress.
CAROLE LEAS while teaching found her one and only and is happily married.
JANICE MCGREW is now in Indianapolis having an Art Exhibition, where she is the Director of the Institute.
ROSEMARY MILLER has her own Beauty Shoppee and is married and is living in Waterloo.
JERRY NEWCOMER is starting the first Card College in America.
JERRY PARNELL has started his doctoring in a local community.
EVERETT REINOEHL has come back to be the Minister at Cedar Lake Church. He is living in that new house.
NORMAN ROSE has taken Bob Hope's place and is player manager of Cleveland Indians.
PHYLLIS SANDERS is married and is keeping house for you-know-who.
FLOYD SCHWARTZENGRABER is manager of No-Sag in Kendallville.
BERDENIA SHIPE after working for three years, decided to start her own family.
EVELYN STACKHOUSE is married to the Smithfield Trustee and is trying to get a new living suite for the Home Ec. Department.
NANCY WICKERHAM is busy keeping the coffepot hot for Jerry while he is out on cases.
JIM WARNER is busy raising little dears up in Canada.
DUANE WILER is happily married and is head buyer for W&D.
SUSIE ZONKER after working in the Lincoln Life, married her man and is still working there.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being sound of mind do hereby declare this document to be our last will and testament.

To the school we leave the patter of our little feet on the stairs and the melodious sound of our little voices echoing through the hallways and the wads of paper, gum, and scratches wherever they may be at this time.

To the faculty we leave the memories of our gentle dispositions.

To the Janitor we leave the mess that has accumulated in the making of this yearbook.

To the Juniors we leave our ability to get things done at the last moment.

To the Sophomores we leave our money making ability.

To the Freshmen we leave these parting words, "Keep on Climbing."

Last but not least we the following individuals do hereby will these prized possessions and abilities:

- I, Lorraine Biggerstaff, will my five sisters to Dollie, then she would never say, "I wish I had a daughter."
- I, Nancy Wickerham, will my knitting ability to Bill Stackhouse.
- I, Janice McGrew, will my ability to run around in art class and get an A to anyone who wants to be a slave.
- I, Norman Rose, will my good looks to Ferdinand Schortgen.
- I, Evelyn Stackhouse, will my quietness to Charles Hampshire.
- I, Dannie Hamman, will my ability to get my lessons after I get to class to anyone who may be as busy as I have been.
- I, Phyllis Sanders, will my job in the lunch room to Miss Gfeller, so she can work her way through school.
- I, Floyd Schwartzengraber, will my Love Book to Carl Kessler so he can get a girl and keep her.
- I, Duane Wiler, will my ability to keep my nose out of other people's business to Floyd Parker.
- I, Jim Warner, will my ability to go with so many different girls to Paul Stahl.
- I, Don Hamman, will my ability to stand on my head in English class and get away with it to Chuck Hampshire.
- I, Carole Leas, will my ability to go with boys from other schools to June Wilhelm.
- I, Jerry Parnell, will my speed to Gilbert Dilley.
- I, Ann Ayers, will my good grade in conduct to my brother who needs it very badly.

- I, Jack Brooks, will my abilities to kiss Lorraine Biggerstaff in play practice to David Rinehart who seems a bit bashful.
 I, Rosemary Miller, will my roller skates to Charles Hertel so he can roller skate around the school next year.
 I, Jerry Newcomer, will my bed to anyone who likes to sleep late.
 I, Phyllis Brenneman, will my C in conduct to Mr. Frederick, so he can give it to another Senior next year.
 I, Agnes Gfeller, will my flirtatious ways to Carol Royal.
 I, Everett Reinoehl, will my F.F.A. Presidency to the great tomboy of the Sophomore class, Carol Royal.
 I, Kathleen Dilley, will my special shock-absorbers to Annette Bender when she gets a C in conduct, and is as surprised as I was.
 I, Susie Zonker, will my short and curly hair to Darlene Sutherland.
 I, David Arney, will the receipts from my first patient to the Athletic Association to buy bandages, tape, alcohol, and smelling salts.

Ashley Aces Basketball

The Ashley Aces although lacking a Harold Buchs or a Donald Kanaga made up for this deficiency by having a well-balanced team with many scoring potentialities. This year found the Aces again short in height but they equalled the speed and energy of past Ashley teams and have used these qualities to build up a record of 9 wins 6 losses which haven't disgraced the name ASHLEY ACES.

Scores of Games

Those who fell victims to the Aces were:

Ashley 60	Salem Center 58
Ashley 57	Legionier 54
Ashley 51	Montpelier 50
Ashley 70	Edon 58
Ashley 48	Waterloo 45
Ashley 66	Orland 60
Ashley 64	Metz 52
Ashley 53	C-Spencer 47
Ashley 67	Hamilton 59

Those who claim victories over the Aces were:

Ashley 53	Garrett 68
Ashley 39	P-Lake 67
Ashley 47	Avilla 64
Ashley 54	Wolcottville 57
Ashley 58 (County Tourney)	Waterloo 66
Ashley 44	Butler 63

Second Team Basketball

The second team showed great promise for the years to come by winning 10 and losing 5. It was composed of four Juniors- Bob Kugler, Eldon Skelly, Charles Hampshire, and Jack Smith; four Sophomores- La Mar Malone, J.C. Smith, Dean Smith, and Leonard Schwartzengraber; with the Freshmen being John Skelly, Norman Leas, Don Shipe, John Weilbaker, Donald Casselman, Robert Bohler, and Charles Mergy.

Baseball

The Ashley Baseball Squad had a good season in "53" winning 5 and losing 2. The scores were as follows:

Ashley	9	C-Spencer	4
Ashley	8	Angola	3
Ashley	5	Butler	13
Ashley	8	Rome City	3
Ashley	12	Waterloo	2
Ashley	11	C-Spencer	9
Ashley	3	Angola	9

Track

The Track future is bright as there were no graduation losses and 8 lettermen are returning from last year. Lettermen returning G. Dilley, dashman and jumper, A. Scranage, D. Scranage, and Eldon Skelly, distance men, J. Parnell in the shot put, C. Hampshire, sprinter and jumper, and D. Davis and Bill Stackhouse, middle distance.

Cross Country

Although plagued by injuries the Hill and Dale men completed a strenuous schedule. The thinly clads ran against Orland, Fremont, C-Spencer, Howe Military, Avilla, Angola, and Wocottville. The high point of the season was the corner conference meet run for the second year at Ashley.

Junior High School Basketball

The grade team has enjoyed a fairly successful season this year. Our schedule of games has been rugged considering the size of most of our boys. We have played Waterloo, Garrett, Butler, Fairfield, P. Lake, and C-Spencer, and Fremont. Of the nine games played we have won four, with wins over Fairfield, P. Lake, and Butler. We have three games yet to play.

The Ashley Chapter Future Farmers of America is well known throughout all Indiana and known some across the whole nation for this reason; our chapter is one of the few across the nation that has a camping trip such as ours. Also it is the only one in this state that has such a trip.

Each summer our advisor and some of the boys of the chapter go up into Canada for about ten days. They sleep in tents and fish and hike in the daytime. They also do some work around the camp grounds and visit various points of interest within driving distance of the camp.

These boys earn their trips to Canada by making so much profit for the chapter. They make this profit by selling various articles such as: jello, garden seeds, plastic freezer bags, scrap and also by raising hogs for the chapter.

We are rather proud of our club for the reason that we learn to work co-operatively and that we have something different and outstanding in the FFA line.

Band

Naomi Vian, Secretary-Treasurer; Rosemary Miller, Reporter; David King, President; June Wilhelm, Wardrobe Chairman; Janet Brand, Librarian.

Perhaps the most active organization in the school is the band. Since 1948, the band has grown from eight members to the present day sixty-five. In the six years we have been in existence, we have bought or made uniforms, purchased nineteen school horns, thirty music stands, a metronome, and two wardrobe cabinets. The horns can be rented for $3.00 per semester. We also have built up a large library of music.

One of our annual projects has been to march at the Auburn fair. We have done this every year for five years. We also marched at the Ft. Wayne Armistice Day Parade. During the summer, we gave Saturday night concerts. We are hired by the Ashley Merchants to do this. The outstanding members of the band go to contests every year, and in the spring the solos and ensembles are given in the form of a Spring Concert.

Will We Ever Forget

The morning of May 6, when sixty kids, four chaperons, and two bus drivers started out for Washington, D.C. In the first picture at the top is one of our bus drivers, Paul Price. Next to him is Cecil Reynolds and another picture of Paul. On the end is Mr. Arney and the two bus drivers relaxing in Washington. Of course you recognize Fred and Evangeline Frederick in one of their loving poses. Under it is Mr. Frederick walking in Washington. Across from this you see Dollie standing on a hill with Harold and Nancy looking on. Below this is the driveway of the motel where we stayed in Pennsylvania. It rained most of the first day. At the bottom is Fred in front of the place where we ate in Penn. In the middle at the bottom are Nancy, Lorraine, Phyllis B. and Rosemary in front of the motel. The next picture is of the motel in Breezewood Penn. That evening we went to Everett to the show.

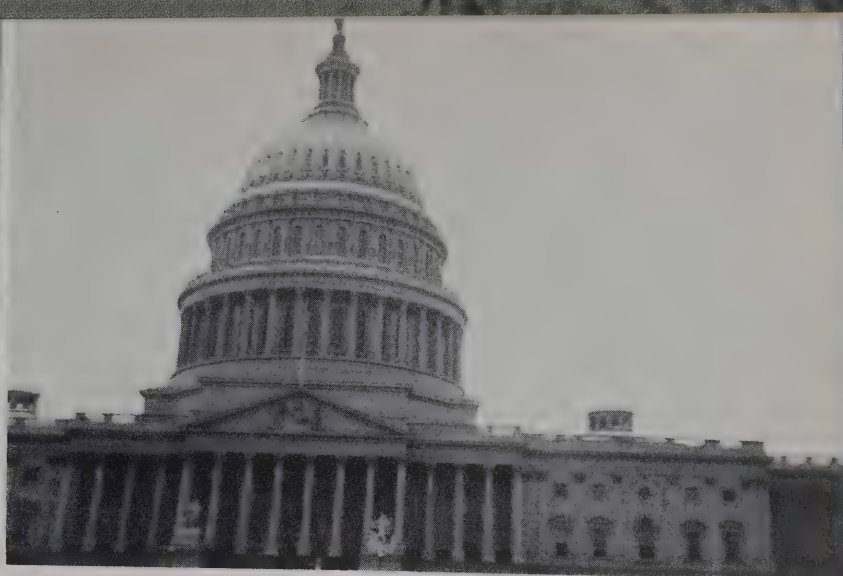

All these pictures are taken in front of the National Art Gallery where we ate lunch. In the top pictures are the following: Agnes, Rosemary, Phyllis, B., Berdenia, Lorraine and Susie. Right next to the girls are Carol R., Theresa, Jim, Jack, Myron, Kenny and Don K.

Below the boys is a water fountain which we could have used as a shower. Across from the fountain are Jack, Kenny, Myron, Donnie, Jim, and Everitt. Down at the bottom are Phyllis B., Nancy, Kathleen, and Lorraine. Next to them are some worn out boys - Dannie, Jack, Donnie, Harold, John H., Norman, Jim, and Everitt.

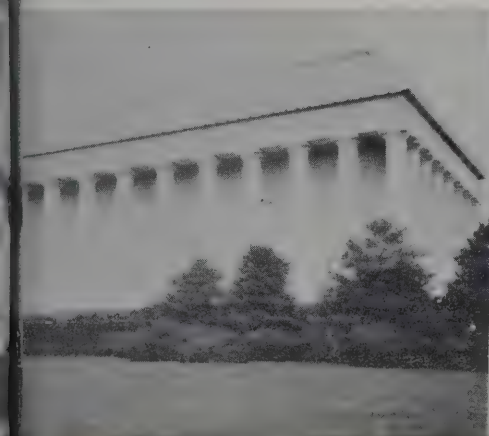

The top pictures are views of the Capitol Building. On the steps of the Capitol are Maryellyn, Joyce, Jean, Glora, Jo, Dollie and Harold. At the bottom of the steps are Carol R. and Jim with some of our bunch in the background.

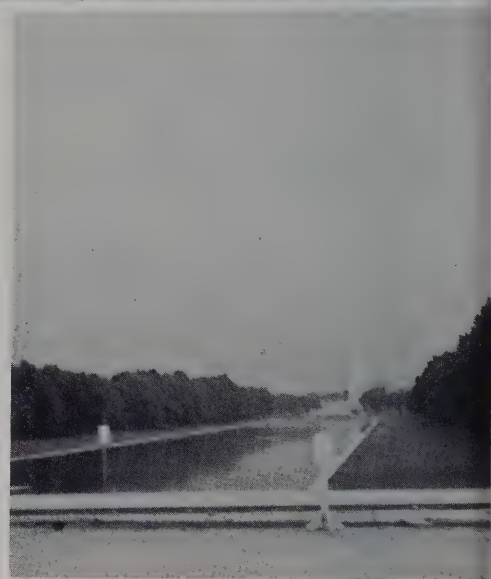

At the bottom are pictures of the Lincoln Memorial. Lorraine, Phyllis B., Rosemary and Evelyn on the Capitol steps, and a front view of the Capitol with our kids in front.

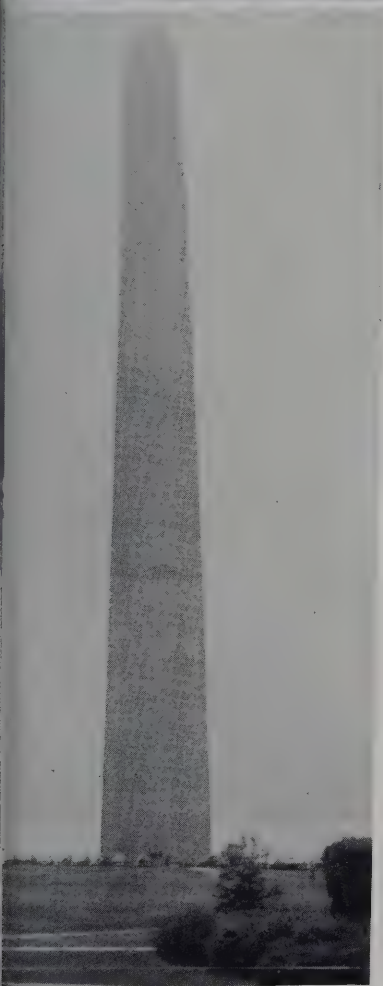

The top picture is a place where we stopped in the hills. Next to it is where we couldn't get in the White House.

Under these pictures are the side of the White House and Washington Monument. At the bottom is another view of the side of the White House and a front lawn view of it also.

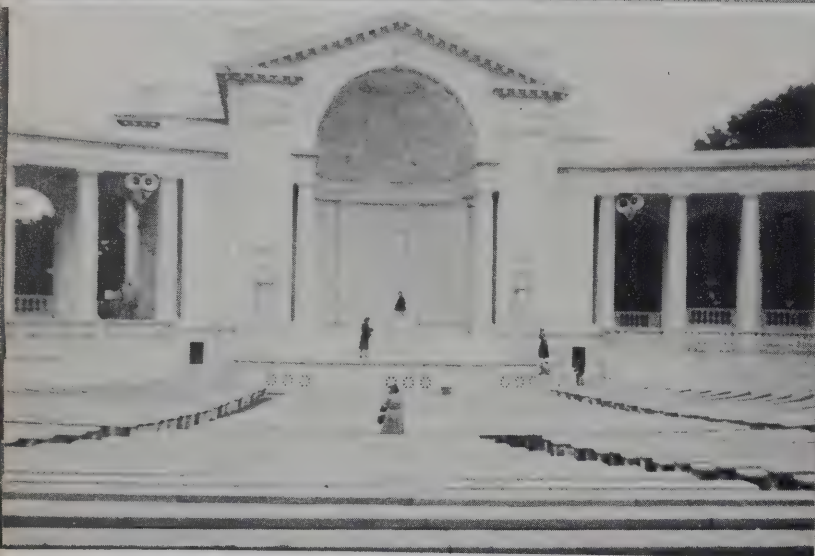

These are the views from the Washington Monument. First is the Jefferson Memorial and next to it is the Capitol. Under this is the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Monument with the modern Abe's at the feet of Abe Lincoln. At the bottom is the Lincoln Memorial. Next to it is a ballgame in progress and the White House

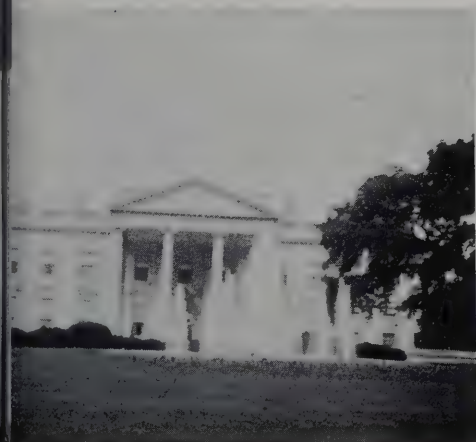

The top picture is of Jackie and Pat coming from the Smithsonian Institute. Under this is the Unknown Soldier's Amphitheater. The rest are front views of the Tomb and Memorial. The last picture is of Washington Monument.

AT MT. VERNON,
 Rosebud (Berdenia) is in the flower garden. Next we look at the Washingtons' Tomb, the boat landing, and the house and tomb. Below is the White House, Harold falling off a mountain, (and he was such a nice guy!)
 and Eagles Nest, in Virginia.

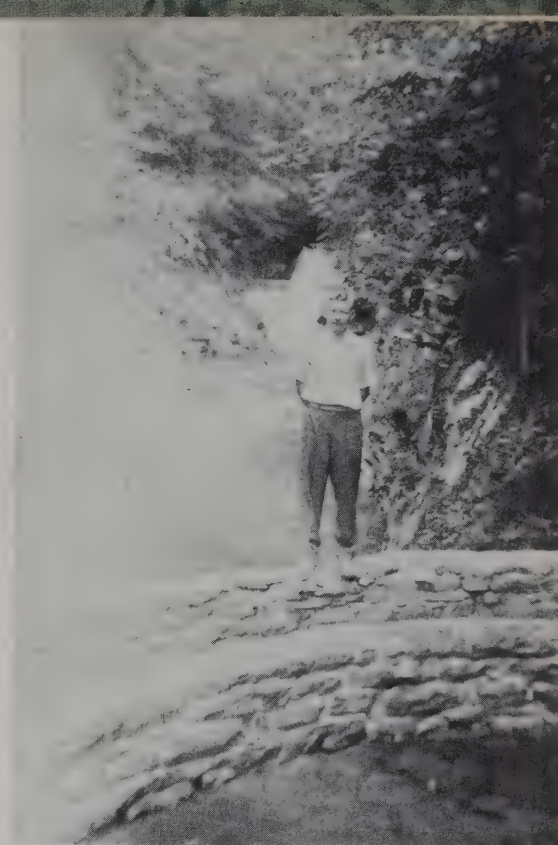

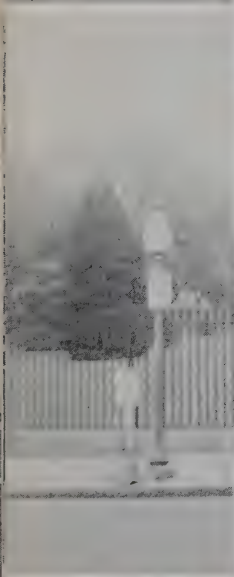

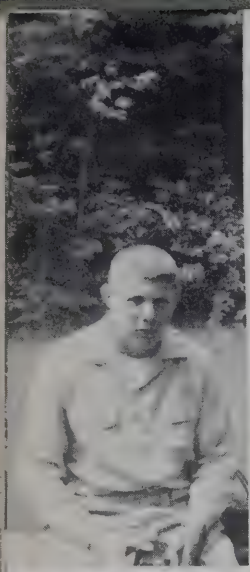

These are scenes of the Natural Bridge in Virginia and some scenes in Washington. The first picture is of the river and next to it is the Natural Bridge, with Donnie, David D., Jim, and Duane. Under this are Nancy, Jack and David A. standing beside the river. Next is another picture of the Bridge. The last is of the Entrance to the Salte Petre Cave. Across from it is the White House. Judy, Maryellyn, Jo, and Glora are standing at the side of the White House in the next one. Above that is the Smithsonian Institute and Jerry P., Nancy and Jack looking at the Declaration of Independence in the Library of Congress.

These are all pictures of the Natural Bridge. The top pictures are of Kathleen and Jack on the wall, next to the river. Poor Evangeline, she's afraid Jerry P. will fall in, but Fred looks as if he would enjoy a good splash. Across from this is another view of the Natural Bridge. Down at the bottom are Nancy and some of our boys looking for David A's dollar. The next picture is of Susie trying to be the Statue of Liberty; we forgot to tell her she was standing in the wrong body of water.

The first picture is of a couple of tired bus drivers, Cecil and Paul. Next to them are some girls at the White House Cabins after breakfast in Virginia. They are: First Row: Ann, Anita, Bonnie, Paul, Jean, Glora, Jo and Maryellyn. Back Row: Bette Ann, Agnes, Carol R., Theresa, Carole L., Berdina, Marianne, Shirley, Joyce, Phyllis P., Judy, Carol M. Below these are Judy standing in front of the Lincoln Memorial and Donnie, Norman and Jim, with their candy cigars??? when the bus broke down. In the other picture, we see the bus drivers in one of their silly moods. At the bottom is a street scene in Chillicothe, Ohio, where we ate dinner. The next one is of Evelyn, Rosemary, Phyllis B., Nancy, and Janice at the back of the bus, eight miles from Fort Wayne, where we ran out of gas. The big question is, now, did we get home or didn't we????????????
